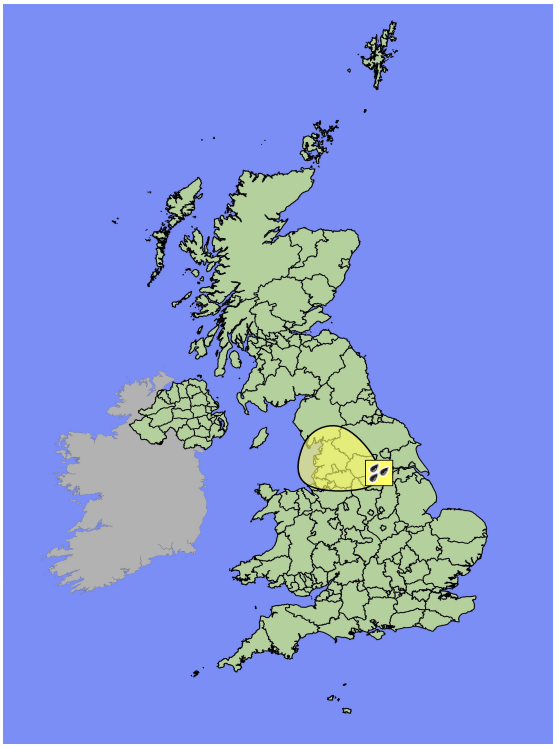
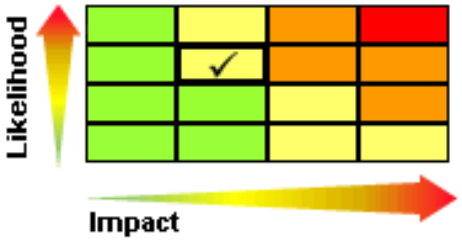
National Severe Weather Warning Service





Chief Forecasters Assessment
Further heavy showers developing later in the night and during Tuesday morning may lead to some places seeing upwards of a further 20 or even 30 mm of rainfall, with some likelihood of surface flooding issues, particularly in urban areas.

The Met Office have issued a Yellow Warning of Rain

Valid from 15:55 on Mon, 09th Jul 2012 until 12:00 on Tue, 10th Jul 2012

After a lull during the early part of Monday night further heavy showers are expected to develop across the region later in the night and persist through Tuesday morning.

Following recent heavy rainfall, the public should be aware that this may lead to localised problems with surface water flooding.
